SCHEDULING ORDER

CV-14-3812 (SJ)(VVP)

APPEARANCES:

Plaintiffs: Robert Marinelli, Esq.

Defendants: David Bassett, Esq.

The above numbered matter having been referred to the undersigned for pretrial supervision and the preparation of the scheduling order required by Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and a scheduling conference having been held with the parties, the following schedule is hereby established:

1. FACTUAL DISCOVERY

- a) Initial disclosures required by Rule 26(a)(1) have been made;
- b) All discovery of factual matters is to be completed by May 20, 2015;
- c) No requests for admissions (other than admissions concerning the authenticity of documents), document requests or interrogatories may be propounded after April 20, 2015;
- d) The above deadlines will not be extended unless the party seeking the extension makes a compelling showing that discovery could not be completed because of unforeseeable circumstances beyond that party's control.

2. EXPERT DISCOVERY

- a) The parties do not intend to introduce expert testimony.

3. MOTIONS

- a) Motions to compel discovery or to resolve other non-dispositive pretrial disputes shall be made by letter in accordance with Local Civil Rule 37.3(c). No such motion will be entertained without a written certification that counsel have attempted to confer in good faith either by telephone or in person in an effort to resolve the dispute, as required by Local Civil Rule 37.3(a). All such motions shall be made promptly after the dispute has arisen and no later than ten days after the expiration of the factual discovery deadline;
- b) Motions to join additional parties, whether by amended or third-party complaint, shall be filed by January 20, 2015;
- c) Motions to amend pleadings to add claims or defenses shall be filed by February 20, 2015;
- d) The deadline for requesting a premotion conference for making dispositive motions is June 10, 2015. Any such motions shall be addressed to, and shall be made in accordance with the individual rules of practice of, the judge to whom the case is then assigned for trial.

4. CONFERENCES AND OTHER MATTERS

- a) A status conference will be held by telephone on February 20, 2015 at 2:15 p.m., to be initiated by counsel for the plaintiffs (Chambers: 718-613-2400);
- b) A final pretrial conference before the magistrate judge will be scheduled at the completion of discovery. A pretrial order, signed by counsel for all parties, shall be presented to the court at the conference. The pretrial order must comply with the requirements of the trial judge then assigned to the case;
- c) The pretrial order shall be prepared as follows: not later than 20 calendar days before the pretrial conference, the plaintiffs shall serve a working draft of the pretrial order on all parties; not later than 10 calendar days before the pretrial conference, all other parties shall serve working counter-drafts of the pretrial order on all parties; not later than 3 calendar days before the pretrial conference all parties shall meet and confer at the office of counsel for the defendants to complete the final pretrial order;
- d) As meaningful settlement discussions will occur at the pretrial conference, clients or other persons with full settlement authority must attend in person or be available by telephone. In addition, not later than two weeks before the conference, the plaintiffs shall communicate a demand for settlement in writing to counsel for the defendants.
